HEALTH EQUITY FIELD EXPERIENCE

FOR NMSU MASTER'S STUDENTS IN HEALTH-RELATED FIELDS

JUNE 16, 2023 - JUNE 30, 2023

The Partnership for the Advancement of Cancer Research, a collaboration between New Mexico State University and Fred Hutch, is pleased to offer an all-expenses paid immersion experience in the U.S. – Mexico Border Region.

Designed to teach students about underrepresented and underserved populations, the field experience will provide an intensive look at health disparities. The two-week experience includes virtual education and training as well as site visits throughout the U.S. – Mexico Border Region.
